

Processors

The following list of fiber processing companies was originally started with lots of work by Fibernetter Gail White, and she deserves thanks from all. Please send any corrections or additions to Ron Parker at rbparker@swipnet.se Many thanks also to Shari McKelvy for telephone checking out the correctness of the list in October, 2001.

The extended comments are from the business owner unless otherwise indicated

A+ Alpaca Fiber Mill 6781 River Road, Jordan, NY 13080. Owned and operated by Chris & Mickey Gilman. We specialize in alpaca fiber as we have been raising alpacas beginning in 1996 as Riverside Alpacas. We are a custom fiber processing mill who will produce yarn, roving, and/or batts. We offer blending of fiber or colors to make beautiful variegated yarns. We offer the customer the choice to wash your fiber or pay a small fee for it to be washed by us. Please visit our website www.AplusAlpaca.com or send Chris an email with your questions to: info@aplusalpaca.com.

<ABC Ranch Naturals 15249 Hwy. 19 Martinsburg, MO 65264 573-492-6472 email angoramom@hotmail.com web site: www.abcranch.com Contact persons are Carl or Bonnie Ahrens. Bonnie writes: We do all types of natural fibers up to 8 inches in length; especially the fine fibers. I raise merino sheep and angora rabbits and our equipment does a wonderful job of blending. We suggest a 20-30 per cent blend of angora to the merino. We have angora fiber you can purchase and add to your soft wool if you wish. On very coarse fibers, llama and alpaca we do recommend a 20 per cent blend.
